

"THE BATTLE CRY OF PEACE," THE ONLY PHOTOPLAY WITH AN ALL-STAR CAST

The Battle Cry of Peace, the latest motion picture produced by the famous Vitagraph Company, will be shown at the Guthrie Daily Leader Saturday evening at 8 p.m. It is the first all-star cast ever to appear in a motion picture. The stars of the picture are the best known in the world.

Charles Richman who plays the lead role in the picture from Hamlet, also in the role of King Lear, and in the picture from Underworld, the most popular and successful film of the year, will be in the picture. The other stars are the best known in the world, and the picture is the most popular in the world.

Tefft Johnson, who plays the lead role in the picture from Hamlet, also in the role of King Lear, and in the picture from Underworld, the most popular and successful film of the year, will be in the picture. The other stars are the best known in the world, and the picture is the most popular in the world.

Miss Thais Lawton, who plays the lead role in the picture from Hamlet, also in the role of King Lear, and in the picture from Underworld, the most popular and successful film of the year, will be in the picture. The other stars are the best known in the world, and the picture is the most popular in the world.

Mr. Hudson Hamm, who plays the lead role in the picture from Hamlet, also in the role of King Lear, and in the picture from Underworld, the most popular and successful film of the year, will be in the picture. The other stars are the best known in the world, and the picture is the most popular in the world.

Mrs. Mary Maurice, who plays the lead role in the picture from Hamlet, also in the role of King Lear, and in the picture from Underworld, the most popular and successful film of the year, will be in the picture. The other stars are the best known in the world, and the picture is the most popular in the world.

Miss Louise Beaudet, who plays the lead role in the picture from Hamlet, also in the role of King Lear, and in the picture from Underworld, the most popular and successful film of the year, will be in the picture. The other stars are the best known in the world, and the picture is the most popular in the world.

W. J. Ferguson, who plays the lead role in the picture from Hamlet, also in the role of King Lear, and in the picture from Underworld, the most popular and successful film of the year, will be in the picture. The other stars are the best known in the world, and the picture is the most popular in the world.